

TATTOO BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

When making an appointment with any representative or associative of Nevermore Tattoo parlour you confirm that you adhere to the following terms and conditions.

SERVICE COSTS

You will have been provided with a quotation for your appointment. A deposit will be required to secure a space in the diary. The cost of the deposit is dependant upon the duration of your appointment. The deposit is deductible from the quote with the remaining balance due on the appointment.

DESIGNS AND DRAWINGS

Our artists drawing time is at their own discretion and they will only draw designs for persons with an appointment in their diary, for which has been secured with a deposit. A drawing is usually provided 24-48 hours prior to an appointment for your consideration. Any amendments can be discussed at this time. On occasions you may be asked to call into the studio for a consultation. If you happen to change your mind on design or placement, this will effect the quotation and potentially the diary space. If more time is required than initially quoted, your appointment may have to be rebooked resulting in the requirement for a further deposit.

Our artists will not directly replicate another tattoo artists design or drawing. We are a custom studio providing bespoke tattooing, offering a unique design just for you.

AGE RESTRICTIONS

When making an appointment you confirm that you are aged 18 or over and can provide government issue photographic I.D on the day of your appointment to evidence this. Unfortunately we will not be able to tattoo you without it.

MEDICAL CONDITIONS, HEALTH & WELLBEING

- If you have any medical conditions and are taking any prescribed medication this must be declared at the time of booking to allow us to make any necessary preparations, precautions or decisions on whether it is safe for you to be tattooed.
- You confirm that you are not; pregnant, breast feeding or have given birth in the last six months as we cannot tattoo you in these circumstances.
- It is important to eat well in the run up to your appointment providing your body with lots of nutrients to support with healing your body. This includes having something to eat within an hour of your appointment.
- Resting well in the run up to your appointment will also aid in a healthy heal.
- You must not drink alcohol or take recreational drugs 24 hours prior to your appointment. If you are found to be under the influence, we will turn you away.
- If you are prescribed antibiotics in the week or so prior to your appointment, please contact us.
- Do not partake in any heavy cardiovascular activities 24 hours prior to your appointment as this will widen your capillaries, increasing blood flow, therefore you will bleed more, making your tattoo much more difficult.
- Avoid sun exposure in the run up to your appointment, this includes sunbeds. If you are tan or sun burnt, we will not be able to tattoo sun damaged skin.
- We cannot tattoo over any healing scar tissue, scratches, bruises, eczema or any other skin condition outbreaks.

ATTENDING YOUR APPOINTMENT

- Please complete your tattoo consent form prior to arrival as this will speed up the process on your arrival.
- You may bring a friend or family member along for moral support if it is your first tattoo or you are of a nervous disposition, however, please do not bring an entourage as we do not have the space within the work rooms and space in our waiting area is limited. Also having too much hustle and bustle within the studio can be very distracting to the artists. On occasions it may not be possible to have a chaperone due to furniture arrangements. Any final decisions are made by the artist and/or the studio manager.
- Only persons over the age of 18 are allowed within the tattooing area. If you have children please make alternative arrangements for their care during your tattoo as they will not be able to attend with you and we do not allow children to remain unsupervised in the waiting area.
- Arrive on time for your appointment. If you run late, you may not be able to proceed with your tattoo. You may be charged for the time in which the artist has committed to your appointment or asked to pay another deposit in order to secure a new appointment.
- There is no PDQ machine within the premises, therefore all payments must be made in person in cash, bank transfer or via paypal directly to the individual artist.
- Wear appropriate clothing to allow your artist access to the area to be tattooed, whilst protecting your modesty. There is a potential that ink or blood may soil your clothing.
- Please shower before your appointment and refrain from applying any creams, lotions, ointments, false tan to the area that is to be tattooed. This includes any numbing cream or receptor blockers. Persons who apply numbing cream prior to their appointment will not be tattooed.
- If you are feeling unwell in the days prior to your appointment, please contact your artists to discuss whether or not it is suitable to tattoo you. Being tattooed can be exhaustive and put your body under strain. If your immune system is already compromised, this may effect the tattoo process and your heal. In cases where attendees are visually physically unwell, we may not be able to proceed with your appointment.

BOOKING TERMS & CONDITIONS

- All appointments require a deposit which is non-refundable. The deposit amount is calculated based on the duration of the appointment and is at the discretion of your chosen artist.
- If you decide to cancel your appointment or provide less than 48 hours notice to request a rearrangement, you shall forfeit your deposit. If you need to rearrange your appointment and provide more than 48 hours notice, the artist shall carry your deposit over to a rearrangement made at this time.
- Our artists do not hold deposits therefore if an appointment is not rearranged it shall be treated as a cancellation.
- Multiple rearrangements may lead to the forfeiture of your deposit, this again is at the discretion of the artist.
- If a touch up session is booked in, these terms and conditions also apply to that appointment.
- Late rearrangement or failure to attend a touch up session will invalidate our free touch up policy and any further appointment will be subject to a new quotation.

By paying a deposit and securing a space in the diary, you confirm that you have read and will adhere to the above conditions. Any breach of the above conditions may lead to you having your appointment cancelled and your deposit forfeited. Your deposit remains under the control and responsibility of the artist and not Nevermore Tattoo.

If you attend your appointment in breach of the above terms and conditions, you shall forfeit your deposit, and another will be required to make an alternative appointment.

It is our duty to provide a safe environment for our clients, artists, associates and employees or Nevermore Tattoo Parlour. Please listen to the safety advice offered by any of the above. Bad language and offensive behaviour will not be tolerated. Noncompliance with the above may lead you to be ejected from the premises at the instruction of the artist or our studio manager.
